Day 3, Thursday, June 19

Kraków

This morning, enjoy a walking tour of Kraków's historical center, beginning with the Basilica on the Rock; the center of veneration of the bishop and martyr, St. Stanislaw of Szczepanów. It was here that the saint suffered his martyrdom at the hands of King Boleslav the Bold in 1079. St. Stanislaw is the main patron saint of Poland and the city of Kraków. Next, visit Kraków's Cathedral, containing the royal tombs, the remains of St. Stanislaw to whom the cathedral is dedicated, the remains of St. Hedwig, queen of Poland in the 14th century, and the relics of the Roman martyr, St. Florian, patron saint of fire fighters. Continue to the Dominican Church, housing the mortal remains of St. Hyacinth, the first Polish Dominican and a notable image of Our Lady of the Rosary. Then, visit the main market square and the Church of St. Mary, with its great Gothic polyptych. Rest of the afternoon at leisure.

Dinner and overnight in Kraków.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a light blue short-sleeved sweater and a patterned skirt, is seen from the side, serving herself from the buffet. She is holding a plate with food on it.

On the left side of the buffet counter, there are several stacks of white plastic containers, likely yogurt or soft cheese. A small white label is visible in front of them.

In the center of the buffet counter, there is a white bowl filled with sliced meats, possibly salami or ham. A small white label is placed in front of the bowl.

On the right side of the buffet counter, there are several trays of sliced meats, including what appears to be prosciutto and salami. Small white labels are placed in front of each tray.

A large, tall green plant, possibly a snake plant, is positioned in the center of the buffet counter, adding a decorative touch to the station.

On the right side of the buffet counter, there are several bowls of fresh salads, including one with tomatoes and another with leafy greens. Small white labels are placed in front of the bowls.

Stacks of white plates and silverware are visible on the top shelf of the buffet counter, ready for use by guests.
